- 2 DR. RAMYA

Speaker:

Mr. Prajwal
Alumni of School of Law

❖ Introduction:

The "Know Your Constitution Seminar" was a highly informative and engaging event organized by Research Club, School of Law, Presidency University. Held at JS04, the WEBINAR aimed to enhance public awareness and understanding of the Constitution, its fundamental principles, and its role in shaping the governance and legal system of the country. The event brought together legal experts, scholars, educators, students, and the general public to explore the significance of the constitution and its relevance to everyday life.

❖ Welcome Address:

The seminar began with a warm welcome address by Mr. Prajwal, a prominent figure in the legal community and a staunch advocate of constitutional literacy. The welcome speaker emphasized the importance of knowing one's Constitution as an essential pillar of active citizenship and democratic participation.

❖ Main Event:

The event commenced with an insightful presentation providing an overview of the Constitution. The presentation covered the historical context, the process of its formation, and its key components, including the preamble, fundamental rights, directive principles of state policy, and the structure of government. Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the Constitution's significance as the supreme law of the land. A major focus of the webinar was on the fundamental rights guaranteed by the Constitution and the corresponding fundamental duties of citizens. Legal experts elaborated on the significance of these rights in upholding individual liberties, equality, and social justice. They also emphasized the importance of exercising these rights responsibly.

The webinar featured an in-depth discussion on the role of the judiciary in upholding the Constitution and safeguarding citizens' rights. Participants learned about the system of checks and balances, the power of judicial review, and the judiciary's role in interpreting and enforcing the Constitution. To encourage active participation and facilitate a deeper understanding of the Constitution, the participants were divided into groups and engaged in lively discussions on various Constitutional topics. These workshops encouraged critical thinking and allowed participants to apply Constitutional principles to real-life scenarios.

❖ Conclusion:

The "Know Your Constitution Seminar" proved to be a resounding success in its mission to promote Constitutional literacy among citizens. Participants left the event with a heightened awareness of their rights, duties, and responsibilities as enshrined in the Constitution. The webinar fostered a sense of empowerment and encouraged attendees to be active participants in the democratic process. By promoting a deeper understanding of the Constitution's provisions, the event contributed to building a more informed and engaged citizenry. It served as a reminder that the Constitution is not just a legal document but the foundation of a democratic society, and every citizen has a crucial role in upholding its principles. The impact of the webinar is expected to extend beyond the event, inspiring continued efforts to promote constitutional awareness and education. With an informed and knowledgeable populace, the nation can progress towards a more just, equitable, and democratic society, where the principles of the constitution are upheld and cherished by all.
