❖ Introduction:

The "Free Legal Aid Clinic" was a commendable event organized by Research Club, School of Law, Presidency University with the aim of providing much-needed legal assistance and support to individuals who might not have access to legal representation due to financial constraints. Held at NG01, the clinic sought to bridge the justice gap and promote equal access to justice for all.

❖ Objectives:

The primary objectives of the Free Legal Aid Clinic were:

i) To offer free legal consultation and advice to individuals facing legal issues or seeking guidance on their rights and responsibilities.

ii) To educate participants about their legal rights and available options for redress.

To raise awareness about the importance of free legal aid and the role of pro bono services in promoting social justice.

❖ Pro Bono Lawyers and Legal Experts:

The speaker Mr. Shaun George is a dedicated Pro Bono Lawyer, legal experts, and law students volunteering their time and expertise. Their commitment to social justice and their passion for ensuring equal access to legal support was evident throughout the event. Participants had the opportunity to engage in one-on-one legal consultations with the pro bono lawyers and legal experts. The consultations covered a wide range of legal issues, including family law, landlord-tenant disputes, consumer rights, labor issues, and more. Each participant received personalized advice based on their unique situation.

❖ Conclusion:

The "Free Legal Aid Clinic" was a resounding success, offering crucial legal support to those who might otherwise have been unable to afford legal representation. Participants expressed gratitude for the opportunity to access professional legal advice and have their concerns addressed. The event exemplified the power of pro bono services and the impact they can have on underserved communities. By providing free legal aid, [Name of Organization/Institution] demonstrated its commitment to social justice and equal access to justice for all. The success of the Free Legal Aid Clinic is a testament to the positive change that can be achieved when legal professionals and volunteers come together to serve the community. The event's impact is expected to extend beyond the venue, as participants take their newfound knowledge and advice to address their legal challenges and make informed decisions.

Through events like the Free Legal Aid Clinic, by Research Club, School of Law, Presidency University continues to play a crucial role in promoting social equality and making a difference in the lives of individuals seeking justice and legal assistance.
