In addition to teaching and testing,

the Department is intensely devoted to pursuit of knowledge, publication and capacity building through holding conferences, seminars and workshops.

The vision of the Department is "Imparting futuristic technical education with a high degree of professionalism in an endeavour to attain global standards to make students technologically competent and ethically strong to ensure better quality of life."

About the FDP

The Department of Languages, SOE, Presidency University, has been organizing a number of academic activities in the field of English Literature and Language Teaching. As part of this initiative, we propose to conduct a Five-Day National level FDP on the theme 'Effective Strategies for Virtual Classes' on the virtual platform.

The program aims to focus on effective strategies to develop students' learning ability and teachers' classroom management. This FDP is designed to help the teaching fraternity adapt to new and innovative ways of imparting language skills and facilitate active learning. This creates a healthier classroom environment thereby contributing to the holistic growth and development of students. Furthermore, it intends to provide awareness on enhancing the effectiveness of online teaching in a creative manner with the aid of new age technology.

Objectives of the FDP

- To familiarize the faculty with the recent developments in online teaching-learning engagement with specific reference to English language teaching
- To create opportunities for collaborative learning in reading and writing skills
- To embrace the challenges and opportunities of virtual teaching and learning
- To generate awareness on the digital adaptability mode
- To analyze the impact of the digital divide among learners
