Circular

Dear Students

Subject: IMPORTANT: Student Advisory – Verification of University Circulars/Notifications

It has come to the notice of the University that a fake and unauthorized circular, bearing a forged signature of the Registrar and involving unauthorized use of the University name and logo, is being circulated.

Students are hereby advised to remain vigilant and refrain from relying upon, sharing, or forwarding such unauthorized communications.

Please note that all official circulars, notifications, and announcements issued by the Registrar or other University authorities are communicated only through the following official channels:

- 1. The University Website – Homepage under “Happenings – Notice & Announcements”
- 2. The Linways Notice Board and the University-assigned email ID provided to every student

Accordingly, any circulars, notices, or messages received through unofficial sources or from unauthorized individuals should not be treated as authentic and may be misleading or fraudulent.

In case of any doubt regarding the genuineness of any communication, students are advised to immediately contact the Office of the Registrar through email registraroffice@presidencyuniversity.in or visit the Office of the Registrar.

Students are further cautioned that any involvement in the creation, circulation, or dissemination of such fake communications shall attract disciplinary action under the provisions of the University Code of Conduct in force.

Students are requested to remain cautious and cooperate in maintaining the authenticity and integrity of University communications.
