1. THE CAMPUS

A. INFRASTRUCTURE

Presidency University, located in the serene Itgalpura village of North Bangalore, is approximately 25 kilometres from Bengaluru International Airport and 35 kilometres from the city limits. Set within a lush, expansive campus of nearly 100 acres, the University is surrounded by verdant landscapes that create an ideal learning environment. The campus is equipped with state-of-the-art design and technology, providing students with a modern and dynamic educational experience.

The infrastructure has been strategically developed to meet the growing needs of the student population. Advanced ICT and technological resources ensure efficient delivery of education. The University is equipped with a state-of-the-art auditorium with a seating capacity of 650, along with a spacious amphitheatre, both serving as venues for a diverse range of co-curricular activities as well as academic events. Additionally, four seminar halls and conference rooms cater to both departmental and University-wide events.

The campus also boasts of a variety of indoor and outdoor sports and recreational facilities that support the holistic development of students. Special attention is given to inclusivity, with accessible infrastructure such as wheelchair ramps, lifts, and tactile tiles designed for visually impaired students.

B. LIBRARY AND KNOWLEDGE RESOURCE CENTRE (LKRC)

The Library of Presidency University currently is spread across three locations inside the campus. The main Library is at the Management Block, which houses books for engineering, information science, and design. Adjacent to the main Library is the Library annexe, which offers resources for management, computer science, engineering, and media studies. The law Library is situated on the 5th floor of the 'S' Block.

The main Library has a collection of over 60,700 books and subscribes to 155 national and international journals and 38 magazines. The Library subscribes to 15 online databases covering engineering, law, management, design, and humanities. The completely automated Library uses KOHA LMS (Library Management Software), and the WEB OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue) is accessible from anywhere. The Library employs an RFID security system to safeguard its resources, complemented by a self-checkout kiosk and a Dropbox to streamline book circulation. PUL actively supports academic publishing by maintaining high standards of quality and relevance, with a particular emphasis on institutional repositories and open access initiatives.

Features of the PU Library

- The institutional repository at PUL utilizes DSpace, an open-source software platform. The Library archives e-books, faculty research articles, photographs, question papers, theses and dissertations, University documents, and the like, and anyone can easily access the resources through the link provided on the Library website.
- You can access the audiovisual material using computers and television. You can also watch live or recorded online video lectures, such as NPTEL lectures and Swayam lectures, using the television provided.
- The Library offers plagiarism check software like Turnitin and Drillbit.
- Knimbus Remote Access Platform.
- Free reprography services
- Library OPAC on-campus and off-campus
- 155 print journals, 38 general magazines, and 17 newspapers
- Mobile App - "Libraries in Hand."
- 25 computer machines with internet access
- The Library subscribes to ProwessIQ, CapitaLine, and IndiaStat databases to access economic and statistical data.

C. LABORATORIES

Laboratories are equipped with the latest equipment and tools that cater to the needs of the students. Experienced staff members with industrial backgrounds provide training to students in laboratories to enhance their practical skills.

The University has discipline-centric laboratories as follows:

D. MEDIA LAB

The Media lab offers cutting-edge facilities, including television and radio studios, podcast recording suites, and specialized labs for content creation, production, and broadcasting. Students gain hands-on experience through various activities such as ground reporting, camera operation, and anchoring.

The Media Studio provides a dynamic space for recording discussions and shows, with training in videography, filmmaking, scriptwriting, and TV production. The Podcasting Lab focuses on audio storytelling, offering advanced tools for recording, editing, and producing diverse podcast formats. The Digital Media Lab equips students with skills in content creation, social media strategies, and audience engagement.

E. LANGUAGE LAB

The Language Lab serves as a platform for first-year and sophomore students to develop their listening, reading, speaking, and writing skills (LSRW), thereby enhancing their practical language proficiency. The language lab offers lessons for slow, average, and advanced learners covering topics such as language teaching, linguistics, and phonetics, which are challenging to convey without audio-visual aids. Students benefit from computer-enabled learning, which enhances their comprehension and overall learning experience. The main objective is to ensure that students acquire a neutral accent in English, thereby aiding their global career prospects.

F. COMPUTER LAB

The University features state-of-the-art computer labs designed to deliver quality education. There are two dedicated blocks of enriched computing facilities, like well-equipped laboratories with modern, high-end configuration computing environments, high-speed internet connectivity, ventilated, spacious, and well-furnished laboratories, and licensed software such as MS-Windows, Office 365, etc.

There are 66 state-of-the-art computer laboratories, with a total of 3664 computers enabling simultaneous access and practice for all students. Each of these computer labs has the capacity to accommodate 60 students. Also, there are dedicated laboratories for IoT, big data, AR, VR, the microprocessor lab with digital trainer kits, and robotics with high-end configuration systems like the i5 6th Gen, 16 GB of RAM, a 1 TB HDD, and TFT monitors.

G. OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (OIA)

Office of International Affairs (OIA) is dedicated to fostering global partnerships and advancing internationalization initiatives, with the core objective of providing “International Exposure to Every Student at Presidency.” OIA actively engages with diverse international and cultural environments to establish strategic alliances with premier universities worldwide. It facilitates international opportunities such as internships, articulation pathways, dual/double degrees, exchange and twinning programs, joint degrees, master’s progression, offshore teaching arrangements, and hosting international faculty. Additionally, OIA supports inbound and outbound student and faculty exchange programs, fosters global experiences, and develops strategies and policies for international collaboration. By promoting international research partnerships and nurturing existing collaborations, OIA offers invaluable support to students and faculty from various schools and departments.

Whether you are a prospective student, collaborative partner, or international visitor, the OIA is your gateway to exploring global academic opportunities. For more information or assistance, visit the Office of International Affairs at the campus or explore their page at <https://presidencyUniversity.in/life-at-presidency/international-engagement/about-us>.

H. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Presidency University Research and Development Cell promotes research among staff and students by offering doctoral programs (Ph.D.) across various disciplines aimed at advancing knowledge and pushing disciplinary boundaries. The R&D cell offers a comprehensive foundation in each discipline while allowing doctoral students the flexibility to innovate and generate new knowledge aligned with their research interests.

The R&D Cell actively encourages faculty members to undertake research and consultancy projects funded by both governmental and non-governmental agencies, including ICSSR, DBT, DST, UGC, and others. Currently, a total of 624 Ph.D. scholars, both part-time and full-time, are pursuing their research across various schools and departments, contributing to the University's vibrant academic ecosystem.

I. SPONSORED RESEARCH

The Office of the Sponsored Research was established at Presidency University with the objective to inspire faculty members to carry out extensive research through a mix of incentives. The incentives are meant to motivate faculty members to publish quality papers, file for patents, generate strong R&D proposals, undertake consultancy projects, execute in-house seed grant initiatives, establish state-of-the-art research facilities, and encourage faculty/student innovations leading to possible start-ups being incorporated. Currently, there are 29 ongoing and completed projects that have received government funding of Rs. 1,44,32,002 and 8 consultancy projects that have received funding of Rs. 12,45,711.

J. ADVANCED RESEARCH CENTRES/CENTRES OF EXCELLENCE

Presidency University has established specialized research-propelled centers of excellence with the goal of promoting advanced research in different specialized areas. Each of these centers of excellence has coordinators and is equipped with state-of-the-art research equipment and other support infrastructure facilities to facilitate advanced research by research scholars and faculty members.

Research Centre(s)	Thrust Areas of Research
Centre for Research in Materials	Nanomaterials, Nanostructured Coatings, Magnetism, Corrosion, Sensors, Surface Coatings

K. PRESIDENCY LAUNCH PAD ASSOCIATION (PLA)

Presidency Launchpad Association (Technology Business Incubator) is a non-profit organization registered as a Section 8 company to handhold aspiring entrepreneurs (students and teaching/non-teaching staff) and provide facilities and assistance to them to start, incubate, and successfully run businesses that involve innovation and socially important and environmentally relevant technologies.

Presidency University envisions PLA as one of the leading incubators in the country. It offers state-of-the-art infrastructure and laboratories with advanced equipment to incubate start-ups. The PLA ecosystem aims to facilitate the growth of start-ups by providing pre-incubation (ideation stage) and free physical and virtual incubation support for the first 18 months. This initiative is open to all aspiring entrepreneurs with innovative ideas and aims to foster their development and success.

L. PRESIDENCY UNIVERSITY LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

The Learning Management System delivers an effective platform to facilitate the teaching-learning process in the digital age. Customized from the world's open-source learning platform, the LMS allows students and faculty to access this platform from anywhere at any time through their specific login credentials. It supports the blended mode of education by seamlessly integrating offline and online classes and facilitating the organized execution of teaching and learning activities.

M. IT DEPARTMENT

The vibrant campus life at Presidency University fosters an environment that not only supports academic excellence but also cultivates essential graduate attributes.

2. GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

Graduate attributes represent the qualities, skills, and conceptual knowledge the University student community aspires to develop, guided by the University leadership during their association with the institution. The Programme Outcomes [PO], Programme Specific Outcomes [PSOs], and Course Outcomes [COs] are systematically integrated into the curriculum to facilitate the achievement of these envisioned attributes. Upon successful completion of the program, the graduates of the University will be able to

- Clearly comprehend relevant domain-specific knowledge.

- Demonstrate strong leadership skills and the ability to effectively work in teams.
- Apply the knowledge and/or skills acquired through the learning process to real-life situations.
- Adapt to the changing world and serve as change agents for the advancement of lifelong learning.

3. HOLISTIC EDUCATION

Presidency University offers academic programs meticulously designed to equip its students with contemporary, industry-relevant knowledge, skills, and aptitude, aiding them in achieving their career objectives. The curriculum and pedagogy are intricately integrated with project-driven experiential learning coupled with assignments that foster innovative thinking. Students at the University benefit from the expertise and mentorship of distinguished academicians from renowned universities and institutions who have carved a niche for themselves in their respective domains.

4. DEPARTMENT OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

The curriculum is based on Choice-Based Credit System, allowing students to select from a wide range of core and elective courses. The multidisciplinary approach provides a holistic educational experience, broadening their perspectives.

Department of Student Affairs (DSA) plays a pivotal role in nurturing student talent and fostering holistic development through an extensive network of more than 50 clubs, chapters, and societies. These initiatives cover cultural, technical, social, and management domains, providing students with a diverse range of opportunities to explore their interests and enhance their skills.

Weekly activities and events, such as cultural celebrations, leadership talks, expert talks on trending technologies, hackathons and awareness programmes, encourage students to broaden their horizons and develop essential managerial and leadership skills. Students are also motivated to participate in intercollegiate and inter-University competitions, enriching their practical knowledge and learning experience. Community-focused initiatives like the NSS and the Rotaract Club instil social responsibility and contribute to societal well-being. Additionally, the DSA ensures student wellness through a dedicated counselling team that provides professional support for personal and academic challenges.

Students who wish to explore and join the club of their choice, visit the DSA page on the official website <https://presidencyUniversity.in/life-at-presidency/student-affairs>

Or visit the DSA office for any queries. Also, to stay tuned to activities and happenings of DSA, follow the official Instagram account of Presidency University at <https://www.instagram.com/presidencyUniversity/?hl=en>

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

Presidency University has always been a torchbearer of social service over the prestigious decades of its existence. It not only shapes the best careers of our students but also shapes their character as responsible citizens of our country. NSS is a step forward in fulfilling our notion. The National Service Scheme (NSS) is a central sector scheme of the Government of India under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. The NSS at the Presidency University has added to sustainable and ecological living, higher standards of learning with awareness drives, celebrating Yoga Day with students, faculties, and adopted slums alike, uplifting social standards, health camps and blood donation drives, orphanage home visits, and hundreds of programs and special camps for the overall welfare of both our students and society.

National Cadet Corps (NCC)

The National Cadet Corps (NCC) Army Wing was established at Presidency University in 2021, under the aegis of the 3 Kar Battalion, Bengaluru. The NCC cadet strength at Presidency University comprises one company of 160 cadets, including both male and female participants. The unit is overseen by an Associate NCC Officer (ANO) and a Girls Cadets Administrator.

The NCC enhances the awareness level of cadets to become responsible citizens of the country and encourages cadets to enrich their knowledge, develop communication skills, and develop character. The five cadets are involved in the conduct of social outreach activities, community development programs, and adventure activities to hone their leadership qualities and risk-taking abilities. It provides a platform to launch “Goodwill Ambassadors” to project the image of a country overseas.

COUNSELLING & WELLNESS UNIT

The Student Counselling Services is an initiative at Presidency University, providing psychological support for the students and faculty in the areas of personal, emotional, social, and academic/career-oriented concerns. There is a growing awareness of mental and emotional health today, thanks to various social and mass media campaigns.

Student counsellors and clinical psychologists provide professional advice and therapy to the students and are available on campus. Students can write to the counsellors, share their concerns, and seek support to comprehend the challenges the student is encountering.

They help to:

- a. Identify the underlying causes of their current emotional state.
- b. Formulate a strategic action plan to address the student's concerns in a supportive and sensitive manner;
- c. Assist the student in building resilience and empowering them to achieve their academic and personal objectives.

Counselling Services

- Individual Counselling
- Peer Support Program
- Workshops
- Working with teachers and parents
- Services provided by university student counsellors

Reach out to the student counsellors @

namratha.j@presidencyUniversity.in

Services rendered by YourDost for Psychological Health

Presidency University has partnered with a counselling service provider named YourDOST. It is a platform that has a panel of more than 1,000 experts in counselling. All students, faculty, and staff can avail themselves of this service for free in relative anonymity. Anyone interested can visit www.yourdost.com, register using the official University email ID, and speak to the experts.

5. STUDENT CHAPTERS & PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

All seven schools, including the core engineering branches under the School of Engineering, actively promote co-curricular engagement through student-driven clubs and societies, with guidance from faculty mentors.

Forum of Civil Engineering (FORCE) was started by Department of Civil Engineering at Presidency University to expose students to the field of civil engineering in its entirety and give them a feel of how the industry works. Forum has organized guest lectures, workshops and industrial visits since 2018 and has launched webinar series from October 2020 to continue the journey of educating young minds despite the barriers and temporary halt posed due to the pandemic situation.

- Society of Petroleum Engineers, US (SPE) has established the Student Chapter at Presidency University. This initiative allows students to benefit from opportunities provided by SPE, including engaging in technology discussions at SPE events, networking with industry professionals, and gaining deeper insights into the petroleum industry. Active participation in SPE student chapter is an excellent way to network with peers and local industry professionals which will offer ways to develop new skills.
- The AAPG Student Chapter at Presidency University, Bengaluru, aims to enhance students' professional knowledge through distinguished lectures, workshops, and events. By collaborating with various organizations in the oil and gas industry, the chapter organizes initiatives to bridge the gap between academia and industry.
- The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) is a global professional association dedicated to advancing technology by fostering collaboration among professionals, researchers, and students. IEEE supports professional development through resources like online courses, certifications, and mentorship while bridging the gap between academia and industry through research alignment and innovation initiatives. Additionally, it promotes ethical and sustainable practices, advancing green technologies and addressing societal challenges. At Presidency University there are four IEEE chapters namely:
 - IEEE Circuit and Systems Society (CASS)
 - IEEE Signal Processing Society (SP)
 - IEEE Communication Society (ComSoc)
 - IEEE Computational Intelligence Society (CIS)
 - IEEE Senior council

6. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF PRESIDENCY UNIVERSITY (AAPU)

The Alumni Association of Presidency University, Bengaluru [AAPU] was established in 2019 and officially registered with the Registrar of Societies on 5th December 2019. AAPU has a stronghold of over 18,000 members. The association's main objective is to create a strong network between the alma mater and the alumni, encouraging them to take an active interest in the work and progress of AAPU by establishing regular engagement between them and the students. The association aims to enrich both current students and alumni through constant interaction and knowledge sharing. AAPU is looking at innovative ways to connect and grow.

AAPU launched its first alumni chapter in Bangalore, followed by one in the capital city, Delhi, and its first international chapter in Dubai established by Dr. Sameena Noor Ahmed Panali, Registrar. Committed to fostering a global alumni network, AAPU continues to expand chapters in cities worldwide.

7. INSTITUTIONAL SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

In today's fast-paced, tech-driven world, students are increasingly disconnected from the realities of their surroundings. Educational institutions play a key role in fostering social responsibility and shaping empathetic professionals.

At Presidency University, the ISR (Individual Social Responsibility) Cell aims to create a positive impact through initiatives aligned with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Students can engage in projects through its five thematic areas, like Shiksha, Samarthya, Swasthya, Sewa, and Sanrakshan, that support quality education, skill development, healthcare access, and environmental conservation, helping them develop a sense of responsibility while contributing to the community.

Students who wish to enroll for volunteering can write to isrcell@presidencyUniversity.in

8. UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP POLICY

The University awards several scholarships to encourage meritorious students and support deserving students. In addition to merit scholarships, the University provides scholarships to students who have excelled in sports, NCC, and cultural.

The University is committed to supporting deserving students whose parents are defense/police/ex-service (armed forces) personnel, differently-abled students, students from economically weaker sections, students belonging to SC/ST/minority segments, students with single parents (mothers), and students who have lost both parents.

The University also provides concessions to students who are alumni of the University and to children of staff members of the Presidency Group of Institutions. There are special scholarships available to the foreign students from SAARC countries. The scholarship for students of Jammu and Kashmir is awarded for all years of their programme of study.

A student can avail themselves of a scholarship only under one category.

- Students to be eligible for a claim of any scholarship need to have submitted, for verification, to the Office of the Registrar, the requisite original certificates.
- Applications with incorrect/incomplete information, non-submission of supporting documents, and submission of applications beyond the last date as notified by the University are liable to be rejected.

- Receiving any scholarship shall not be a matter of right, for the awarding of scholarships shall be at the sole discretion of the University.
- The various categories and details of scholarships offered by the University shall be notified by the University at the time of admission to a new academic.
- The conditions and rules for the award of scholarship/concession in the University tuition fees shall be clearly prescribed in the University scholarship policy notified from time to time.
- Scholarships are restricted to rebates in the University Tuition Fee only and are applicable for the first year of the relevant programme of study.
- Students who are awarded a scholarship for the first year of their program of study shall pay the full University fee and other charges/deposits, as applicable, prescribed in the fee document of the University from the second year of the program till completion of the program of study.
- If a student withdraws or discontinues from the programme, they are required to remit back the scholarship amount.
- All students who are awarded any type of University scholarship shall be required to give a written undertaking to abide by the rules and conditions relating to the award of such scholarship.
- Students who have participated in international, national, or state-level sports competitions are eligible to avail of sports scholarships.

9. EXAMINATION GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL

The Examination Grievance Redressal Cell provides a mechanism for the redressal of grievances related to examinations, ensures transparency in examination practices, and prevents unfair practices at the University. This cell is linking the students with the faculty in the continuous evaluation process. The University examination office, along with the faculty team, ensures the smooth conduct of the University examinations and continuous assessment. If any grievance occurs, it will be immediately considered and redressed.

Objectives

- Monitor the examination process to ensure a stress-free examination atmosphere in the exam hall.
- Resolve the student's grievances related to examinations and continuous assessments.
- To encourage the students to express their grievances/problems on the conduct of examinations without any fear.
- Issue of mark sheets, transcripts, provisional degree certificates, and any other certificates as per the University examination regulations.

- Emphasize prevention of errors rather than controlling through punitive measures.
- The students or faculty members with a genuine grievance may approach the co-coordinator or member of the cell in person. In case the person is unable to appear in person, grievances may be dropped in writing or an email may also be sent to the co-coordinator of the Examination Grievance Redressal Cell.

Submission of Grievances

Students and teachers can submit the grievances by using any one of the following.

- A. Filling the form available with the coordinator and members at the cell.
- B. Sending the mail: examredressal@presidencyUniversity.in

10. STUDENT GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL (SGRC)

Presidency University is committed to providing a safe, fair and harmonious learning and work environment. In view of this, the University has a robust mechanism for redressal of students' grievances in a timely manner. The grievances that need immediate redressal are related to academic and non-academic matters, such as assessment, victimization, attendance, charging of fees, conducting of examinations, harassment by fellow students or teachers, etc. In this regard, a formal Student Grievance Redressal Cell (SGRC) is constituted in accordance with the UGC Regulation to deal with day-to-day grievances of its stakeholders, including the students.

Any student who is aware of any violations must report the same to the SGR. Said grievance must be submitted in writing and should be made within (04) days from the day of the alleged violation. The SGRC shall take note of the grievance and inform the Disciplinary Committee to conduct the inquiry and impose appropriate retribution. There shall be an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in place in cases of any sexual harassment complaints.

The Constitution of the School Level Grievance Redressal Committee, University Level Grievance Redressal Committee, Procedure for Redressal of Grievance, Types of Grievances, Appellate Authority/Ombudsman, Functions of Ombudsman, and Procedure for Redressal of Grievance by Ombudsperson are placed in Annexure-3

11. ANTI DISCRIMINATION CELL

Discrimination against any person on the grounds of his/her disability or physical limitations and minority status is a gross violation of universally accepted principles of equality and human rights and even constitutional obligations. Presidency University has set up an Equal Opportunity Cell to address the issues concerning Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes, and Persons with Disabilities.

The basic aim of the Cell is to ensure that students and faculty belonging to various diverse backgrounds of community, religion, region, gender, or ability are not deprived of their basic opportunities. Everyone must have access to basic rights to foster inclusivity and harmony. This cell organizes various activities to promote inclusive policies and practices for all. It also addresses grievances to ensure equality and equal opportunities for disadvantaged groups on campus through the effective implementation of policies, skill development programs, and societal initiatives.

12. ANTI - RAGGING

A conducive and amicable environment is a hallmark of Presidency University. This ambience is ensured by various committees and bodies that make students aware of the consequences in the event of breaching the code of conduct. The Anti-Ragging Committee is instituted to ensure the safety and comfort of the students and to provide an amicable environment on the campus and in the hostels. The University is guided by the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Education Institutions. It is expected that every student reads the below-mentioned guidelines and abides by the regulations.

Ragging is a cognizable offence, and Presidency University will take strict action against offenders.

Definition of Ragging

- Any act of physical abuse, including all its variants—sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, and stripping; forcing obscene and lewd acts; gestures; causing bodily harm; or any other danger to the health of a person.
- Any act that prevents, disrupts, or disturbs the regular academic activity.

Anti - Ragging Measures

According to the instructions of the Honourable Supreme Court of India and in accordance with the UGC Regulations and Karnataka State Government Guidelines on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions (2009), the University has constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squads for overseeing the strict and meticulous implementation of all the directives. The members of the anti-ragging committee and anti-ragging squads, along with their mobile numbers, shall be displayed for the benefit of the students, especially the newly admitted students.

- The University educates the students enrolled for various programs, at the beginning of each academic year, about the Anti-Ragging Policy and Zero- Tolerance for ragging at the University.
- It is mandatory for each student, as well as his/her parents/guardian to submit online separate undertakings in the form of an official declaration at the time of admission by clicking on <http://www.antiragging.in> to the effect that they are aware of the prohibition of ragging & the punishment prescribed both by the penal laws and these regulations. All students must submit their acknowledgment number to their class coordinator.
- Anti-ragging hoardings, banners, and billboards are displayed at prominent places in the University campus, including hostels, canteens, messes, cafeterias, buses, playgrounds, lawns, labs, etc.
- Surprise checks of hostels/canteens/cafeterias/bus stops are carried out regularly. A close and regular liaison is maintained with the local police to guard against any instance of ragging.
- An FIR will be lodged in the police station on all reported ragging cases. Daily briefing for the new students is carried out by counsellors and coordinators.
- An anti-ragging committee of the students is also formed. In case any student encounters ragging by any of the senior students, he/she is immediately required to contact the members of the anti- ragging committee, who will take immediate corrective action and necessary proceedings will be initiated against the culprits engaged in ragging activities. The constitution of the University Anti-Ragging Committee is placed in Annexure 1.
- Punishment for Ragging:
- Lodging an FIR against the offender.

- Rigorous imprisonment for up to 3 years (under court of law).
- Fine up to Rs. 2, 50,000/-

13. POLICY FOR PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Presidency University is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students and employees can work together in an environment free of violence, harassment, exploitation, intimidation, and stress. This includes all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment, and discrimination on the basis of sex/gender or amongst the same-sex members.

The University Policy on Prevention of Sexual Harassment has been framed keeping the following objectives in view:

- To comply with the directives of the Honourable Supreme Court of India.
- To establish an effective mechanism for the prevention and redressal of sexual harassment cases and other acts of gender-based violence at the University.
- To create and foster an environment at the University that is completely free of sexual harassment in its various forms and to generate public opinion against all forms of gender-based violence.
- For the purpose of this policy, "Sexual Harassment" shall include, but will not be confined to, the following:
 - Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and/or verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature made, either explicitly or implicitly, in return for a term or condition of teaching/guidance, employment, participation, or evaluation of a person's engagement in any University activity.
 - When unwelcome sexual advances and/or verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct—such as loaded comments, remarks or jokes, letters, phone calls, or emails or any other communication mediums; gestures; showing of pornography; lurid stares; physical contact or molestation; stalking; sounds; or display of a derogatory nature—have the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual's performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.
- Forcible physical touch or molestation; eve teasing, innuendos, and taunts; physical confinement against one's will; and any other act to impinge upon one's privacy.
- Any act or conduct of a person in authority and belonging to one sex that denies or would deny equal opportunity in pursuit of education or career development, or otherwise makes the environment at the University hostile or intimidating to a person belonging to the other/same.
- This policy is applicable to all allegations of sexual harassment made by a student against a student, employee, or third party, irrespective of whether sexual harassment is alleged to have taken place within or outside the University.

- The University has constituted a Committee for Prevention of Sexual Harassment to make note of complaints about sexual harassment, conduct inquiries, provide assistance and redressal to the victims, recommend penalties, and take action against the harasser, if necessary.
- The disciplinary action shall be proportionate to the nature of the violation and could be in the form of a warning, suspension, or even expulsion from the University.
- The Constitution of the University Committee for Prevention of Sexual Harassment, its responsibilities and procedures are placed in Annexure – 2.

14. ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Every student can access the academic regulations of the University along with the concerned program regulations and curriculum on the web portal of the University. The students and parents must read these documents so that they are well aware of the regulations, policies, and rules of the University. The students are required to comply with all the Regulations, Policies and Rules issued by the University from time to time. A person seeking admission to any program of the University shall be deemed to have read, understood, and accepted the academic regulations and the concerned program regulations and curriculum.

- University officials should handle students' issues with utmost care and with an open mind. Punishment must not be the sole agenda while enforcing discipline.
- Students are to be encouraged and motivated to adopt the right path through proper counselling by faculty, mentors, and/or the student counsellor.

The nature of disciplinary actions shall be based on the severity & the frequency of acts of indiscipline noted against that particular student's name, and the procedure followed could be any one or a combination of the below:

Positive Advice/ Counselling:

The student is first referred to a mentor (faculty/counsellor) who would offer him/her words of advice to guide them towards positive alternatives of behaviour. If the student is unable to reflect upon his/her own actions and rectify them accordingly, then engaging the student with the counsellor shall be mandatory. This will ensure positive behavioural change, and if required, subsequent follow-up counselling sessions shall continue to take place.

Warning/ Fines:

- If the student's behaviour is found inappropriate, a formal warning notice will be issued by the concerned authority in the University.
- They will be instructed further that they shall be provided with one chance to display positive/appropriate student behaviour after realizing their mistake.
- In some cases of misbehaviour, such as theft or misuse/damage of institutional property, fines may be imposed.
- The written evidence of fines shall be recorded in the student's file as proof of behavioural history, in case such kind of behaviour is repeated in the future.
- If students are engaged in behaviour such as smoking, consuming alcohol, and/or taking drugs, then a fine as well as strict disciplinary action may be imposed.

Suspension from Classes

Temporary Suspension from the University excludes the student from academic or other activities for a specified period. The suspension notice will be issued to the student and their parents/guardian, and it will be recorded in the student's disciplinary record. The student may be withdrawn from courses and forfeit fees. After the suspension period, the student must request reinstatement by submitting a letter to the Chief Proctor/Dean Student Affairs with supporting documents. Return to the University is subject to approval by the concerned authority.

Rustication

Rustication is a serious disciplinary action that excludes a student from the University for up to one year. During this period, the student's rights are forfeited, and their degree will not be conferred. The student will be withdrawn from all courses, and fees will be forfeited. The rustication notice will be issued to the student and sent to their parent/guardian, and it will be recorded permanently in the student's disciplinary records and academic transcripts. Rusticated students are not allowed on campus.

Expulsion

Students expelled from the University will forfeit all student rights, be withdrawn from all courses, and have their fees forfeited. Expulsion prevents the student from receiving a final degree or awards. The expulsion will be recorded in the student's disciplinary records and academic transcript, and the student will not be allowed on campus. A copy of the expulsion notice will be sent to the student's parent/guardian.

Postponement of Conferring of Awards and Degrees

The University reserves the right to defer, postpone, or cancel the conferring of any award and degree during the course of disciplinary measures or during the period of suspension.
