17 Practical/Skill based Courses – Internships/Thesis/Dissertation/Capstone Project Work/Portfolio/Mini project:

Practical / Skill based Courses like internship, project work, capstone project, research project / dissertation, and such similar courses, where the pedagogy does not lend itself to a typical L-T-P-C Structure as defined in Clause 5.1 of the Academic Regulations, are simply assigned the number of Credits based on the quantum of work / effort required to fulfill the learning objectives and outcomes prescribed for the concerned Courses. Such courses are referred to as Non-Teaching Credit Courses (NTCC). These Courses are designed to provide students with hands-on experience and skills essential for their professional development. These courses aim to equip students with abilities in problem identification, root cause analysis, problem-solving, innovation, and design thinking through industry exposure and project-based learning. The expected outcomes are first level proficiency in problem solving and design thinking skills to better equip Law graduates for their professional careers. The method of evaluation and grading for the Practical / Skill based Courses shall be prescribed and approved by the concerned Departmental Academic Committee (refer Annexure A of the Academic Regulations). The same shall be prescribed in the Course Handout.

17.1 Internship

A student may undergo an internship for a period of 20 weeks in an industry / company or Courts during the Semester Break, subject to the following conditions:

- 17.1.1 The Internship shall be conducted in accordance with the Internship Policy prescribed by the University from time to time.
- 17.1.2 The number of Internships available for the concerned Academic Term. Further, the available number of internships shall be awarded to the students by the University on the basis of merit using the CGPA secured by the student. Provided further, the student fulfils the criteria, as applicable, specified by the Industry / Company or academic / research institution providing the Internship, as stated in Sub-Clause 2.6.1.2 above.
- 17.1.3 A student may opt for Internship in an Industry / Company or Courts as per her / his choice, subject to the condition that the concerned student takes the responsibility to arrange the Internship on her / his own. Provided further, that the Industry / Company or Courts offering such Internship confirms to the University that the Internship shall be conducted in accordance with the Program Regulations and Internship Policy of the University.
- 17.1.4 A student selected for an Internship in an industry / company or Courts shall adhere to all the rules and guidelines prescribed in the Internship Policy of the University.

17.2 Dissertation

A student has to complete their Dissertation during the final year in the university under the supervision of the allotted faculties or as per the rules of the University Department(s) as an equivalence of Capstone Project, subject to the following conditions:

17.2.1 The Dissertation shall be approved by the concerned Dean and be carried out under the guidance of a faculty member.

17.2.2 The Dissertation shall confirm in accordance with the Program Regulations and requirements of the University.

Course Code: LAW2021	Course Title: Law of Torts and MV Act Type of Course: Law Program Core	L-T-P- C	4	0	0	4
Course Pre-requisites	NIL
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	Traditionally, the law of Torts is considered to be the branch of law governing wrongful actions for damages for injuries to legal rights, like the rights to person, property and reputation. The award of pecuniary reparation for such injuries was the subject of consideration in Common Law. This redressal of wrongful civil actions by awarding compensation is generally un-liquidated and mostly depends on the discretion of Judges. This branch of un-codified law has, therefore, attained great proportions, and attracts a large amount of litigation in England and in the United States. However, it did not develop to the same extent in India, mainly due to the lack of awareness, the difficulties of people in approaching Courts and the uncertainties about the outcome in the litigation. It is a living and growing branch of law and its main theme is the recognition of individual's legal rights and duties in conformity with the standards of reasonableness and public good and convenience. It is a Course of profound interest to the first semester students of law. The course is Conceptual and theoretical and the analysis of the same will help in critically analyzing the various dimensions of uncoded civil wrong.

Course Code: BAL2008	Course Title: Sociological Theories Type of Course: Liberal Core	L- T-P- C	4	0	0	4
Course Pre-requisites/ Co-requisites	Students are expected to possess knowledge of basic concepts of sociology (social groups, difference between community, associations, etc.) and current world affAirs.
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	We all construct and use social theories in our everyday lives. Social theory allows for seeing patterns, forces, and power relations, encouraging us to make sense of all kinds of social phenomena – ranging from everyday interactions between friends to decades of violent colonisation. In this course, we will read major theories of sociology, and then we will spend time understanding how they have been used to understand specific social phenomena. Theory must be relevant to real-life “social facts” for it to survive, and we will work toward bridging the abstract concepts in our readings with the world around us. The course will try to stimulate thinking by linking the legal realm with the world of sociological thinkers.

Course Code: BAL2013	Course Title: Western and Eastern Political Thoughts Type of Course: Liberal Core	L-T- P- C	4	0	0	4
Course Pre-requisites	Political Science
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	Political thought studies questions about power, justice, rights, law, and other issues related to governance. The major objective of this course is to introduce the students to the key thinkers in Western and Eastern political thought which shape our political discourse. In this course, we examine major classic texts where thinkers pose difficult questions about the political community, power, law, social order, and human nature. A clear understanding of these contestations of thoughts over the key thinkers of politics, it is hoped, will help the students develop their own independent views and judgments about political thought or political philosophy at large. After having developed their understanding of key thoughts, philosophies and theories, through tutorials, discussions, students can critically apply the same in various domains of law.
Course Objective	This course is designed to improve the learners' Employability Skills by using Participative Learning techniques.
Course OutComes	On successful completion of the course the students shall be able to: CO1: Describe contributions of political thinkers and its relevance for law. CO2: Demonstrate an awareness of the historical development of political ideas and their evolutionary direction; CO3: Analyze concepts and ideas of western and eastern political thought and its implications for law CO4: Develop an understanding of the works of key political thinkers and underlying philosophical concepts influencing contemporary political issues CO5: Develop an understanding of the importance of the cultural context in which political ideas evolve and its impact on the society.

Course Pre-requisites	Intellectual Property Rights
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	The purpose of this course is to introduce the topic of biodiversity conservation, the course Aims to develop the ability of students to analyze ethical issues through the incorporation of case discussion and case writing. The ethical analysis of biodiversity conservation requires an inquiry into past, present, and possible future frameworks for conservation, and their ethical, social, economic, legal, political, and ecological implications. It also requires recognition of the fact that social and cultural values influence the research and adoption of certain conservation tools and methods over others, as much as biodiversity and ecosystem conditions drive social and cultural changes.

Course Pre-requisites	LAW2024 - Constitutional Law-I
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	This course looks into the provisions in the Constitution of India which were enacted to correct India's Social injustices. Discrimination can be one-sided, two-sided, or multi-layered. Sex, caste, color, religion, sexual orientation, place of birth, and so on and so forth are only a few examples of discrimination. Discrimination is expressly prohibited by the Constitution. Another set of discriminatory policies, such as "affirmative action," "protective discrimination," "positive discrimination," "compensatory discrimination," and so on, deals with the legacy of prior prejudice. This course will discuss the concept of discriminative justice, sex discrimination law and reservation jurisprudence and the scenario of affirmative action in other countries.
Course Out Comes	This course is designed to improve the learners' Employability Skills by using Experiential Learning techniques.
Course Objective	On successful completion of this course the students shall be able to: CO1. Students will develop a critical approach in looking at the effectiveness of the affirmative action mechanism. CO2. Students will critically evaluate different philosophical, legal, and sociological perspectives on affirmative action. CO3. Students will be able to appreciate the intersectionality approach in understanding the underpinnings of affirmative action. CO4. Students would be able to evaluate alternative approaches to the existing system of affirmative action. CO5: Analyze the objectives, legal framework, and impact of the government's reservation policy in public employment and general governance.

Course Pre-requisites	New Criminal Law Codes
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	The course explores the nature and extent of crime within society. Students will examine various theories of crime causation, including biological, psychological, sociological, and social-psychological perspectives. The course will also cover the criminal justice system, including law enforcement, courts, and corrections, and analyze contemporary issues in crime and criminal justice, such as policing, sentencing, and victimization.
Course Out Comes	On successful completion of the course the students shall be able to: CO 1- Gain a comprehensive understanding of the fundamental concepts, theories, and schools of thought in criminology, including the nature and causes of crime and deviant behavior. CO 2- Develop the ability to analyze real-world criminal cases and patterns of crime, applying criminological theories to evaluate and address criminal behavior effectively. CO 3- Examine ethical considerations in criminology, fostering an understanding of the moral and societal implications of crime, criminal justice practices, and victimology. CO 4- Evaluate the impact of crime on individuals, society, and the criminal justice system, while exploring emerging issues such as cybercrime, organized crime, and terrorism.
Course Objectives	The course is designed to acquaint students with advances made by sociology and psychiatry in understanding human behaviour particularly, deviant behaviour. In the past criminality was confined to acts of violence or unlawful acts of commission or omission. Thus the purpose behind criminality in the past was to do acts of revenge or to it for personal gain. The concept of crime has changed considerably in recent years. Unscrupulous members of society to indulge in anti-social behaviour with impunity have devised sophisticated methods. Emphasis will be laid on understanding the weak and strong points of the existing system in order to determine whether it can meet the challenge and carry new burdens. The advances made in this respect in developed countries will be discussed to create awareness among the students of the problems in the context of Indian condition

Course Objective	This course is designed to improve the learners' Employability Skills by using Experiential Learningtechniques. By the end of this course, students will: 1. Develop a foundational understanding of Artificial Intelligence technologies and their interaction with legal systems. 2. Examine and compare national and international Artificial Intelligence regulations, assessing their effectiveness and challenges. 3. Investigate key legal concerns such as liability, intellectual property, privacy, and criminal justice, along with ethical considerations. 4. Formulate informed legal and policy recommendations to address Artificial Intelligence’s regulatory and governance challenges.
Course Out Comes	On successful completion of the course the students shall be able to: CO1 Compare and evaluate Artificial Intelligence regulatory frameworks and policies across different countries CO2 Examine Key Legal Issues Related To Artificial Intelligence And Propose Solutions Within Existing Legal Frameworks. CO3 Identify and Analyze Current And Emerging Legal Trends Affecting The Artificial Intelligence Industry. CO4 Understand the core technology underlying the modern development of Artificial Intelligence, the existing and newly developing legal and regulatory frameworks that might apply to the development and use of Artificial Intelligence CO5 Identify and analyze some of the core legal and ethical issues at play in the development, deployment and use of ai capabilities across a range of contexts and use cases

Module 1	Fundamentals of Artificial Intelligence	CO1	Lectures & Conceptual Discussions	10 Sessions
Introduction To Artificial Intelligence – History, Evolution, And Key Concepts; Types Of Artificial Intelligence – Narrow Artificial Intelligence, General Artificial Intelligence, And Superintelligence; Machine Learning, Deep Learning, And Neural Networks – An Overview; Ai Technologies – Natural Language Processing, Computer Vision, Robotics; Artificial Intelligence Applications In Governance, Healthcare, Finance, And Law; The Role Of Data In Artificial Intelligence – Big Data, Algorithmic

Decision-Making, And Bias; Challenges And Limitations Of Artificial Intelligence – Explain Ability, Accountability, And Control

Module 2	Legal Frameworks for Artificial Intelligence	CO2	Case-Based Learning	12 Sessions

Overview Of Global Artificial Intelligence Regulations – UN, OECD, And G7 Frameworks; Comparative Study: EU Artificial Intelligence Act, UK Artificial Intelligence Strategy, Indian Artificial Intelligence Strategy, Chinese Artificial Intelligence Regulations; Sector-Specific Artificial Intelligence Regulations – Healthcare, Finance, And Autonomous Vehicles; Liability In Artificial Intelligence Systems – Product Liability, Civil And Criminal Responsibility; Regulatory Challenges – Compliance, Enforcement, And Global Harmonization

Module 3	Artificial Intelligence and Legal Aspects	CO3	Problem-Based Learning, Simulations & Experiential Learning	14 Sessions
-----------------	--	------------	--	--------------------

Artificial Intelligence And Legal Personality – Can Artificial Intelligence Have Rights And Duties?; Artificial Intelligence And Intellectual Property – Copyright, Patents, And Artificial Intelligence -Generated Works;
Artificial Intelligence In The Criminal Justice System – Predictive Policing, Bias In Artificial Intelligence Sentencing;
Artificial Intelligence And Privacy Laws – Data Protection, Gdpr, And Artificial Intelligence -Driven Surveillance;
Artificial Intelligence And Contract Law – Smart Contracts And Automated Decision-Making;
Artificial Intelligence In Dispute Resolution – Online Dispute Resolution And Artificial Intelligence In Courts;
Artificial Intelligence in Administrative Law – Government Use of Artificial Intelligence in Public Decision-Making

Module 4	Operation of Artificial Intelligence and technology in the legal sphere and its impact	CO4	Lectures & Discussions	12 Sessions
-----------------	---	------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------

Documenting and scrutinizing the operation of Artificial Intelligence And Tech In The Legal Sphere; Analysing Emerging Legal Issues In Artificial Intelligence Deployment In The Legal Sector
Legal Personhood – Accountability And Responsibility
The Impact Of Artificial Intelligence On Rights And Liberties Broadly – (Use Cases: Predictive Algorithms, Predictive Policing)
Artificial Intelligence Crimes; Artificial Intelligence’s Interference With The Due Process And Access To Justice; Artificial Intelligence’s Interference With Democracy; Artificial Intelligence’s Interference With The Rule Of Law

Module 5	Ethical and Future Considerations	CO5	Research-Oriented Approach	12 Sessions

Artificial Intelligence Ethics – Justice & Fairness, Bias And Discrimination In Artificial Intelligence; Privacy & Surveillance
Artificial Intelligence And Human Rights – Right To Explanation, Digital Autonomy, and Artificial Intelligence’s Impact On Freedoms;
Artificial Intelligence and Democracy – Disinformation, Artificial Intelligence -Generated Content, and

Political Manipulation; The Future Of Artificial Intelligence Regulation – Global Cooperation and Emerging Trends;Balancing Innovation, Ethics, and Legal Control Of Artificial Intelligence Targeted Application & Tools that can be used: NIL

Course Code LAW2102	Course Title:Election Law Type of Course: Discipline Elective 6	L-T- P- C	4	0	0	4
Course Pre-requisites	Constitutional Law
Anti-requisites	NIL
Course Description	The course on Election Laws provides an in-depth understanding of the legal and constitutional framework governing the electoral process in India. It examines the intricate relationship between democracy and elections, focusing on the mechanisms and laws that ensure free and fair elections. The course explores the roles and responsibilities of the Election Commission, electoral disputes, and the legal provisions laid down in the Representation of People Act. It also delves into contemporary issues such as state funding, electoral reforms, and the emerging concept of political accountability. Students will analyze the nuances of voting rights, qualifications and disqualifications of candidates, and electoral offences. The course emphasizes the importance of electoral reforms and the evolving dynamics of democracy, empowering students to critically assess the challenges and reforms in the Indian electoral system. Through a comprehensive study of election laws, students will develop the skills necessary to contribute to legal and policy discourses on electoral practices and reforms.
Course Out Comes	Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to: CO1.Understand the Constitutional and Legal Framework: Demonstrate a clear understanding of the constitutional provisions and statutory laws governing elections in India, including the role and powers of the Election Commission. CO2.Analyze Election Processes and Procedures: Examine the process of elections, qualifications and disqualifications of candidates, and the preparation of electoral rolls, along with understanding the laws related to representation and candidacy. CO3.Evaluate Electoral Offences and Practices: Identify corrupt practices, electoral offences, and critically evaluate the emergence of concepts such as the right to vote, the right to reject, and anti-defection laws. CO4.Critically Assess Electoral Reforms: Analyze contemporary electoral reforms, including state funding of elections, the concept of NOTA (None of the Above), the feasibility of the right to recall, and decriminalization of politics. CO5.Engage in Policy Discussions: Develop insights into the challenges in electoral politics and propose solutions for achieving political accountability, including reforms in campaign financing, manifesto audits, and adherence to the Model Code of Conduct. CO6.Contribute to Democratic Processes: Apply the knowledge of election laws to advocate for transparent, fair, and effective electoral practices, supporting the strengthening of democratic institutions in India.
