PRESIDENCY UNIVERSITY 1ST CONVOCATION REPORT

Education can bring together people of different beliefs, religion and ideologies. The large scale destruction of our environment in terms of cutting of trees, illegal mining and dirtying the environment can be stopped by only education. Gift of education to an individual is permanent". This was stated by Shri G T Devegowda, Hon'ble Minister for Higher Education, Government of Karnataka. He was speaking on the occasion of the First Convocation of Presidency University, Bangalore held on Friday, 23rd November 2018. Stating that communal harmony is possible only by education, the minister said that only education can bring social justice in our country. Stating that there has been an exponential growth in science and technology, the Minister called upon the universities to bring the benefits of Science & Technology to the common people. The Minister said that the National Social Service (NSS) wing in every educational institution orients the students to societal issues. Expressing his happiness on the increase in the number of girls entering higher education, the Minister said that in some colleges, percentage of girls have reached up to 50%. Expressing his concern at the increase in unemployment among the youth, the Minister said that educational institutions need to focus on skill development too which will make the youth employment ready. Honorable Minister lauded the efforts of Presidency University in providing high quality education and congratulated the Graduands.

Speaking on the occasion, the Hon'ble Chancellor of the University, Shri Nissar Ahmed said that the university which started with 600 students in 2015-16 as got over 6600 students now. Infrastructure in terms of classrooms, library, laboratories, buildings, sports, hostels and others have been built up with great speed in order to meet the growing needs.
