FutureReady Youth
Programme: Empowering
Students for Career Success

About the Event	<h2>FutureReady Youth Programme: Empowering Students for Career Success</h2> SDG 4: Quality Education, SDG 5: Gender Equality, and SDG 8: Decent Work & Economic Growth Presidency University's ISR Cell successfully conducted the Presidency Future-Ready Youth Programme from 24th to 28th November 2025, supporting the capacity-building of students from Government PU College, Rajankunte. The programme equipped students with essential communication, confidence-building and career readiness skills, preparing them for future academic and professional opportunities. Over four days, students actively participated in interactive sessions, culminating in presentations demonstrating the skills they had learned. To recognise excellence, a competition was held to identify the Top 3 presenters based on Confidence, Clarity and English Communication Skills, with Monika, Sandhya and Tejaswini emerging as winners. The programme concluded with a certificate distribution ceremony on 3rd December 2025 at Presidency University, celebrating student achievements and reinforcing the University's commitment to empowering Government college students through meaningful educational outreach.
