CPR Workshop: Building a Safer, Healthier Campus Community

About the Event	CPR Workshop: Building a Safer, Healthier Campus Community SDG 3: Good Health & Well-Being, SDG 11: Sustainable Cities & Communities, SDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals The PU ISR Cell conducted the CPR Awareness & Emergency Response Workshop, equipping students with essential life-saving skills and strengthening emergency preparedness on campus. Through hands-on training, students learned CPR techniques, the step-by-step emergency response process, and the importance of quick, decisive action during cardiac emergencies. The workshop empowered participants to respond confidently and responsibly in real-life situations, reinforcing the message that “every second counts.” By collaborating with healthcare professionals, Presidency University reaffirmed its commitment to campus safety, student well-being and community resilience, fostering a safer and more prepared learning environment.
