Presidency university successfully hosts global education fair 2025

Giving the students of Bengaluru a golden opportunity to study abroad, Presidency University organized a mega education fair recently. More than 60 internationally acclaimed universities from 14 countries participated in this fair. Top universities like UCL, Kings College London, University of Auckland, Macquarie University, UC Davis and Indiana University were present at the Presidency University campus in Yelahanka to guide those students who wish to do their UG, PG or hD courses from abroad. Students from several schools and colleges attended the global education fair and connected with the representatives of various participating universities. The education fair was inaugurated by Dr. Vijayan Immanuel-Vice Chancellor, Dr. Siva Perumal-Pro VC and Dr. Sameena Noor Ahmed Panali-Registrar. Speaking on this occasion Dr. Siva Perumal highlighted the importance of globalization in the higher education sphere and expressed happiness at the response received both from renowned universities as well as the students of Karnataka.
