Celebration of the 77th Republic Day of India

About the Event	Celebration of the 77th Republic Day of India SDG 4: Quality Education, SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities, and SDG 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions The Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) Cell, in collaboration with the Rotaract Club, successfully celebrated the 77th Republic Day of India with the students of Chokanhalli School. The programme was organised with the objective of honouring the spirit of the Indian Constitution and fostering constitutional awareness among young students. Through interactive engagement, discussions, and collective participation, the programme encouraged students to understand their role as responsible citizens and to actively contribute to the nation's progress and development. The event also marked a reaffirmation of commitment by the organising bodies towards social responsibility, nation-building, and community empowerment through education and awareness. By commemorating the day on which the Constitution of India came into force, the initiative emphasised the importance of upholding constitutional ideals and nurturing informed and conscientious citizens from a young age.
