DIPLOMA IN INDIAN CLASSICAL PERFORMING ARTS

BHARATANATYAM KATHAK

WHERE TRADITION MEETS SCHOLARSHIP AND PASSION TRANSFORMS

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The Diploma Programmes in Indian Classical Performing Arts at Presidency University are thoughtfully designed for learners who wish to pursue artistic excellence within a structured academic framework. Rooted in the rich heritage of Indian classical traditions, the programme offers immersive training in dance and music while encouraging intellectual inquiry, creativity, and cultural appreciation. Students receive guidance from eminent gurus and experienced practitioners through a curriculum that combines:

- Practical learning
- Theory and aesthetics
- Performance studies
- Cultural understanding
- Artistic interpretation

DISCIPLINES OFFERED

BHARATANATYAM

The Bharatanatyam programme follows the traditional bani systems of the dance form and approaches training as a disciplined study of movement, expression, and meaning. It guides students from foundational practice to the ability to perform the full repertoire with clarity, awareness, and understanding. Learning is supported through masterclasses, lecture demonstrations, stage performances, and workshops, providing continuous exposure to both practical presentation and theoretical study.

KATHAK

Unfold the timeless art of storytelling through the captivating rhythm, graceful movements, and expressive depth of Kathak. This comprehensive Diploma Programme offers a structured immersion in both the technical precision of pure dance and the emotive nuances of Abhinaya. Rooted in traditional Shastric knowledge and complemented by rigorous practical training, the course provides a transformative space for dedicated artistes to refine their technique, develop stage presence, and elevate their passion into artistic excellence.
