Course Code: VAC22SOC022	Course Title: Managing for Business Sustainability Type of Course: Value Added Course
Version No.	1.0
Course Pre-requisites	This course sets the landscape of sustainability for creating long-term competitive advantage and growth related to business
Anti-requisites	None.
Course Description	Businesses struggle with keeping products and services current and staying ahead of changing global market demands. This course focuses on applying the concepts of sustainable value to create business sustainability through investment strategies, market insight, and operational excellence. Students will gain an understanding of how sustainable development and sustainability principles are used as drivers for innovation, collaboration, and transformation. Environmentally-friendly, socially-driven, and capitalism-restricting agendas, and sustainability principles will be discussed as they relate to business sustainability.
VAC Out Comes	At the end of this course, students should be able to 1. Define sustainability, sustainability leadership, business sustainability, and the sustainable enterprise as it relates to stakeholder value that requires performance on multiple dimensions. (Knowledge) 2. Apply sustainability values using a variety of frameworks for engaging in meaningful business sustainability practices. (Application) 3. Discuss how any product or service can be sustainable, regardless of its costs, materials, or regulations if attention is paid to fundamental business feasibility and acceleration. (Comprehension)
