ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- ODD SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:

ALLOTMENT OF MENTOR-MENTEE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023- EVEN SEMESTER

The Mentor-Mentee program is a valuable opportunity for students to connect with experienced faculty members in the Civil Engineering Department and receive guidance and support. The program is designed to help students with their academic progress, career development, and overall well-being. The mentors have been selected based on their experience, expertise, and commitment to student success. They will be responsible for regularly meeting with their mentees to discuss their academic progress, career goals, and any other challenges they may face. The mentors will also provide their mentees with support and guidance as they navigate their college experience.

The mentor-mentee pairs have been assigned as follows in below attachment:
