Dear Mr. Suresh:

We are pleased to inform you of your admission for graduate study in Computer Engineering beginning with the Fall Semester 2023. All new students must attend the International Student Orientation. Information about orientation will be emailed to you by the International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO), or visit <https://www.isso.iastate.edu/new-student-orientation>.

If you indicated on your application that you would be applying for a student visa, the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019) has been enclosed. Please check it carefully to make sure that the information is accurate and notify us immediately if any corrections are necessary.

If you indicated that you are currently attending another school in the US, a new Iowa State University I-20 Form cannot be issued until AFTER your current institution releases your SEVIS record to Iowa State University (the release date is usually on or after the last day of classes). In addition to requesting your current school to release your SEVIS record, you must also complete the I-20 SEVIS Transfer to ISU e-Form available under the Student Services tab in CyStart at cystart.its.iastate.edu. You will have to login through the Limited Services link on the right side of the page. Iowa State must have this e-form completed by you and your International Student Advisor at your current school before you begin classes at Iowa State.

Your admission is conditional pending our receipt of official final academic records from your previous institution(s). (Uploaded and e-mailed documents are not official.) Final records must be received by our office before you will be allowed to enroll in classes at Iowa State. If you are a current ISU student, this will be handled internally for you. If you anticipate any difficulties in meeting these requirements, please contact the Office of Admissions for assistance. You can reference information regarding official academic records on the enclosed Official Academic Record Information Sheet.

- If your studies are complete, please contact the Registrar at your previous school(s) and arrange to have official records mailed to the Office of Admissions. They must be received within the next four weeks. If you have already had all official academic records sent, you may skip this step.
- If you are still attending classes, when your present study is complete, please arrange to have your final academic record and degree statement sent to our office. Please contact the Registrar at your institution(s) and arrange to have those official records sent to the Office of Admissions within four weeks of the completion of the final term.

If your primary language is not English, you will be given an English placement test upon your arrival in order to determine your need for a course in English as a second language.

Health documentation requirements for new students are provided on the Thielen Student Health Center website at www.cyclonehealth.org. All new students attending Iowa State University are required to submit proof of two immunizations for measles, and international students will also be given tuberculosis screening and a meningitis vaccination after arriving at Iowa State. You will receive a message on AccessPlus that provides a link to the online Immunization Submission System which allows you to upload scanned copies of your immunization documentation. These must be received no later than one month before the beginning of the semester. A health insurance policy to help defray the costs of health care or unexpected hospitalization is required for all international students and any family members who accompany them. If you have already attended Iowa State University, you can skip this step. Further information on the health insurance program is also available on that website.

Our Department of Residence website (<http://www.housing.iastate.edu/>) provides you with information about the various types of housing offered. Preference in housing assignments is based on the dates the housing contract is received, so the earlier you return the contract to the Department of Residence, the more likely you are to obtain your housing preferences.

Please keep this office and your department informed of any change in your plans. We look forward to your joining us at Iowa State.

Sincerely,

William R. Graves

Section 8 - Standard Semester Dates and Census Dates

Census dates

The Census date for all teaching periods are published here <https://www.latrobe.edu.au/calendar/all-students/census-dates>. Each subject offered at the University will have a Census date. The Census date is the last date you can withdraw from a subject without being financially liable. Please refer to the above link for information about Census date.

Dates for system-generated KN Grades

KN Grade

If a student withdraws from a subject after two thirds of the teaching period has passed but before the end of teaching period, they will have a KN grade recorded against that subject. 'KN' signifies that a student has withdrawn with academic penalty (i.e. counted as a failure).

A student cannot withdraw from a subject after the teaching period has ended.

Last Withdrawal without Fail Date

The last withdrawal without fail date is the last day on which a student may withdraw from a subject without academic penalty.

For example, for Semester 1, 2023, the Last Withdrawal without Fail is 26/04/2023. This is the last day on which student may withdraw from a subject without fail. Any subject in which a student withdrawn on 27/04/2023 will be shown as FAIL.

Section 9 - Student Fee Procedure - International Student Refund Policy and Privacy Statement

The University reserves the right to vary Tuition Fees and these are reviewed annually and are subject to change. Changes to Tuition Fees will be applied at the beginning of each calendar year. Any fee rate increases will be applied to all offers of admission at the rate applicable to the actual commencement date of your course.

STUDENT FEE PROCEDURE - INTERNATIONAL STUDENT REFUND POLICY

The Student Fee Procedure - International Students Refund policy observes the principles outlined in the Code of Practice and Guidelines for Australian Universities published by Universities Australia and complies with the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act. The policy applies to all commencing and continuing international students (or their legal guardian or sponsor) and full fee paying students not holding a permanent residence visa unless otherwise stated. All refund requests for course money (tuition fees) (as defined in the ESOS Act) are conditional on the following:

- The funds for the refund must be available (cheques are cleared, telegraphic transfers have been received);
- Any debts to the University must be paid in full or outstanding amounts will be deducted from the refund; and
- The relevant School must have processed any course or subject cancellations.

For information, please refer to The Student Fee Procedure - International Students Refund Policy: www.latrobe.edu.au/international-student-refund

The amount of refund a student is entitled to is dependent on:

- a. the reason for the refund;
- b. the stage of enrolment of the student; and
- c. the day that refund becomes available to a student in the circumstances outlined in this Procedure and associated documents.

The refunds payable in these circumstances are calculated according to the provisions outlined in Schedule A Refund Entitlements

If a student is unhappy with any decision made by the University relating to the refund of fees, and they wish to contest La Trobe's rejection of a refund application, students have access to an established dispute resolution procedure, which do not circumscribe a student's right to pursue other legal remedies. This agreement and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect your rights to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

Students who are not satisfied with the response received relating to the refund of fees can apply to the University Ombudsman for a review of the matter, in accordance with the University's Statutes and Regulations www.latrobe.edu.au/about/management/organisation/ombudsman
